INTRODUCTION:

This method is one of my more “outside-the-box” creative methods. It's not your typical money-making ebook that you'll find online, in the sense that it has nothing to do with making a website, generating leads or traffic, it has nothing to do with affiliate marketing or anything that you would typically find on the WF or elsewhere. However, do NOT let that discourage you or turn you away. This is something you can do to make extra cash or even turn it into a full time hobby (a money-making one of course)! Keep an open mind and remember that if you implement this method → You will make money.

Onto the “main” introduction...

In today's world, physical books are not as popular as they once were, but they are still a crucial part of education, self-help, learning, entertainment and much more. So, don't think that paper books are “dead” by any means. Sure, ebooks are gaining immense popularity, but they haven't taken over quite yet.

Being that you're most likely an internet marketer – or an aspiring one – you most likely are a bit more interested in ebooks and digital formats, which is great! I'm sure however, that you wouldn't mind making money from physical books, would you? ;-)

The great thing about physical books from a money-making point of view, is that you can acquire books for extremely cheap → Whether it be from garage sales, yard sales, thrift stores, book sales, or even get them FREE (sometimes by the box!) from friends/family or other sources. So let's dive into this neat method, shall we?

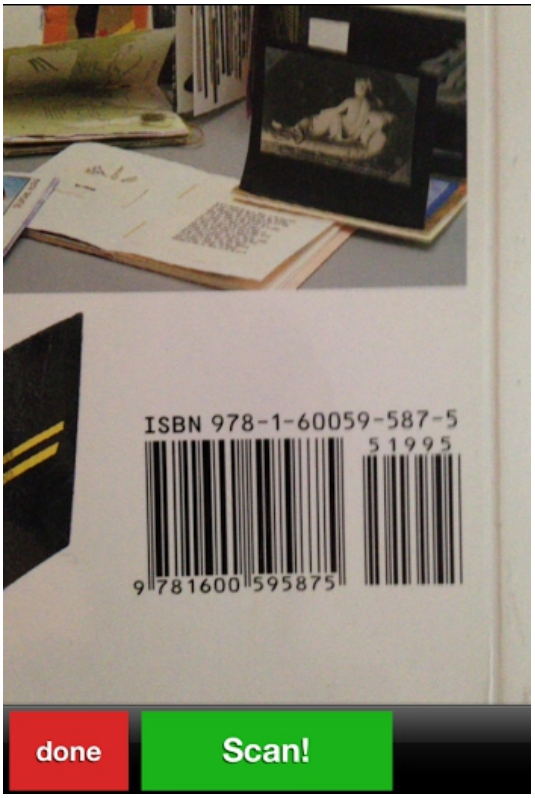

THE METHOD:

It definitely helps to have an iPhone or Android phone to do this method, because it revolves around the BookScouter App for iOS and Android (it's a FREE App), however, you CAN still do this without one, but it will be a tiny bit more time consuming. BookScouter has a website, so you can do this from ANY smartphone – OR you can simply use a computer. You must've had an internet connection to purchase or download this report, so I'm sure you'll have no problem here.

Basically, you will be re-selling 'physical books' to websites that offer to purchase pre-owned books from people. What makes this method easy, is the BookScouter website and mobile application. With BookScouter, you can scan the barcode (ISBN) of any book and within seconds it will tell you how much you can sell the book for.

It will list all of the websites that are willing to buy that particular book and how much they are willing to pay you for it.

Check out the screenshots below from my iPhone:

This is how you scan the barcode (ISBN) number using your smartphone camera.

As you can see above, SellBackYourBook.com is willing to pay me $4.50 for this particular book that I got for FREE.

Now, DON'T WORRY. If you do not have an iPhone or Android phone and are unable to download the BookScouter app, you can simply use BookScouter.com from any smartphone OR from any COMPUTER.

The “ISBN” number is located on books, typically above the barcode on the back of the book. Look for “ISBN” and then a number.

Where/How Do I Get Books to Sell?

You're probably asking yourself “How am I going to get books to sell?” That's actually the EASY part! Nowadays, most of us have quite a number of books lying around our own house that we wouldn't mind getting rid of in order to clear out some space, is that something you can relate to? If so, how would you like to make some CASH from those books that are taking up space and cluttering up your house?

If you don't have any books that you want to part with (I know some of us love our books and couldn't imagine getting rid of any) → No worries! You can get books for CHEAP or even FREE in a number of ways. How?

For one, thrift stores and places such as GoodWill have people dropping off books by the box, donating them because they don't want them anymore. These stores turn around and sell these books for as little as $0.25 cents a book! (Sometimes less). But follow me...

If you could buy a book for $0.25 or even $2.00 and then turnaround and sell it for $4.00... You've just made an incredible profit on your investment! How many times could you do this a day/week/month? How much EXTRA cash could you make just selling a bunch of books that you don't even want anymore (or your friends, family, co-workers, etc. don't want anymore)?

There are even pre-owned bookstores that could potentially have deals on certain books that would allow you to make a profitable transaction by purchasing it and then reselling it via BookScouter.

Craigslist.org is another great resource for getting books. Craigslist is a FREE online classified ad site. Similar to the “Classified Ads” section of your newspaper, but online. They have TWO sections that you could use to find books. One is the “For Sale → Books” section where people are selling books and there's also the “For Sale → Free” section, where people are giving stuff away for FREE, including books of course. You could get boxes of books for just pennies per book in some cases. Easy enough, right?

Let's talk about it some more...

So, we've established that BookScouter is a tool that you can use to scan books from your smartphone (or manually enter the ISBN number on the website) and find out how much money different online bookstores are willing to pay you for any particular book.

We've also established that you could easily acquire books cheaply at thrift stores, GoodWill, book sales, garage sales, yard sales, Craigslist, etc. and that you can likely acquire some FREE books from friends, family, co-workers, etc. OR even start by selling some of your OWN books that you don't want/need anymore.

With the above information, you can almost immediately start making money by finding books, and selling them to stores online.

How Does the Book Selling Process Work?

Good question. Once you scan the ISBN number of a book or enter it manually on the BookScouter website, you will end up with a list of merchants who are willing to purchase your book. On the website, it looks like this:

Company	Rating	Features	Price	Link
Powell's Books	★★★☆☆(61)	PP $	$4.75	Sell Here
SellBackYourBook.com	★★★½☆(58)	PP $	$1.92	Sell Here
BookJingle.com	★★★★☆(41)	PP $	$1.03	Sell Here
Book It Buyback.com	★★★★☆(32)	PP $	$0.93	Sell Here
BookStores.com	★★★★★(4)	PP $	$0.76	Sell Here
Valore Books	★★★½☆(66)	PP $	$0.25	Sell Here

Take a look at the "Features" column. The "PP" symbol means they pay via PayPal. The little book means they also pay via check. The "$" symbol means they pay for shipping (most ALL of them do, which is really great since the shipping costs will not affect your profits at all). And then there's a link for you to "Sell Here" which will take you to the website with instructions on shipping and selling your book(s).

It's that easy!

After you click on "Sell here" or if you're going through the process on your smartphone, you will see that the book-buying websites will simply ask you to enter the ISBN number(s) of the book(s) you're selling them and you will "add them to your cart" only this time, your shopping cart will actually make YOU money, LoL! Then, they'll give you an address to ship the books to. When they receive the books, they will make sure they're not destroyed or in terrible condition and they'll issue your payment via your desired method (Check, PayPal, etc.)

How Does That Make YOU Money?

Although it should be pretty straightforward at this point and obvious how this method can make you money, I like to be ultra clear when explaining things to students or readers of my reports.

You will be making money by profiting on the sales of these books.

If you think about it, the money is really made when you BUY or otherwise acquire a book. For example, if you go to a thrift store and bring your iPhone/Android with you, armed with the BookScouter app, you can start scanning books and see how much you can sell them for online to these stores. If a store will give you $5 for a book that you can buy for $1, then by purchasing that book, you are making money. Because you are guaranteed to get that $5 for it when you sell it, thus giving you a 500% profit! The money is in the buying! (Or getting the books for free of course).

HOW CAN YOU SCALE THIS UP?

It's simple. More books = more money.

If you can make $30/day (you can achieve this from a small handful of books or even just one or two of the right kind!), then your earnings would be just under $1,000/month.

Scaling up to $100/day would just require that you sell 3 books per day at a $33 profit. (or 10 books/day at a $10 profit, etc)...

I put this together mainly for people that are looking for “outside the box” ways to generate some income and/or extra cash, without having to work for “the man.”

For some people, just making an extra $100-$200/month could be life changing. While others need $100-$200 extra per week. I think this method could generate that and potentially even more if someone is motivated enough and puts their mind to it. Taking action is KEY. Thinking about it isn't going to make anybody money. Getting out there and selling some books WILL.

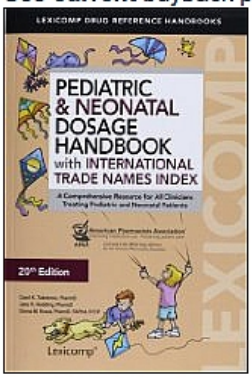

Get your friends or family in on it. Tell people to lookout for books that would otherwise be thrown in the garbage or put into storage or an attic to collect dust and have them notify you or pick them up on your behalf. You can offer people a share of the profits for helping you and you could even potentially outsource this by having people go out and buy cheap books for you or look for giveaways, etc. Get creative!

HOT TIP:

The best books to look for are educational books and informative books. These books can fetch BIG BUCKS such as the examples below:

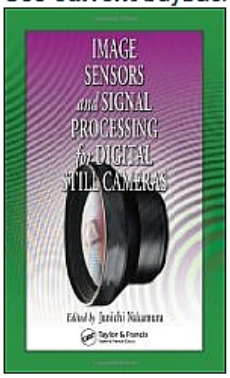

Recent Online Book Buyback Prices

ISBN: 1591953251
Buyback Price: $36.25
See current buyback prices

See historic buyback prices

ISBN: 0849335450

Try to look for books that are educational as opposed to just science fiction, etc. Try to get college books! Books that people need for certain college/university courses fetch TOP DOLLAR.

However, ANY book could make you money so keep that in mind!

UK Residents:

There is a website called www.webuybooks.co.uk that works in the same way that BookScouter works and you can type in the ISBN number for books and even DVDs, Blu-Ray Discs, Games, Music, etc.

THE METHOD IN A NUTSHELL:

So, here is a basic outline of what you'll be doing with this method:

1. Download the BookScouter App for Mobile Phones Here: http://bookscouter.com/mobile-apps (Or go to www.bookscouter.com if you don't have a smartphone)

2. Start scanning some of your own books if you have any that you're willing to sell. Also ask any friends, family, co-workers, etc. if they have any books they don't want anymore that you could take off their hands. You could also always offer them to split the money with them if you let them know you're going to be selling them.

3. Go to thrift stores, GoodWill, used bookstores, look for book sales, garage sales, yard sales, Craigslist and anywhere else that you could get a good bargain on books.

There are also places ONLINE that you can find books CHEAP (eBay, Amazon, etc) and flip right from home...

4. Decide which websites will give you the most money for your books and start filling up your “carts” on those sites with your books.

5. Ship out the books and then collect your money when they receive them!

6. Rinse and repeat!

Flip your flipping business?

My business partner, Dan, had a somewhat similar book-flipping business about 10 years ago...

He was able to sell it for just under $10,000!

So, let's say you set up a system where you are consistently finding bargain books at certain locations and making 'X' amount of profit...

You could potentially turn around and SELL your book-flipping business to someone who is looking to purchase a profitable business. If you can prove profits, you've got a valuable asset!

CONCLUSION:

I hope you enjoyed reading this short, simple, NO FLUFF report on an easy way to make money “flipping” physical books. I wish you the best success in your online endeavors!

Best,
Shane N.
