Introduction

Hey its tonymac here...

I've been online since 2007 and make a living by making money online...

And helping others just like you do the same.

I want to start off by congratulations to you for getting CPA traffic mayhem

In case you haven't figured it out yet...

This system is all about using Bing ads to make money in a simple step by step guide.

You see, Bing ads is an absolute goldmine just waiting for you to start with.

Which is why I'm happy that you put your trust in me and picked this up.

If you are a newbie... then this system is for you

If you have some experience.... then this the system for you as well

And even if you are a veteran marketer... this system is for you too.

The best part about Bing ads is that the clicks are super targeted and really cheap...

You literally can't get this type of quality traffic anywhere else.

So please, I ask that you treat this system like gold and keep it safe..

As using it is going to make you some serious amounts of money.

The only thing I ask of you...

Is that you promise to take action.

Making money online isn't all that hard, but it does require action.

So as long as you promise to yourself that you're going to put this into action...

Then the only way to fail is by simply quitting or moving to something else new shiny object.....

(Winners never quit & quitters never win)

And I know you're not going to do that when you see the power of this.

Here's to helping you make money...

Thanks for being a customer.

Module 1: Getting set up.....

In case you were wondering what this step includes...

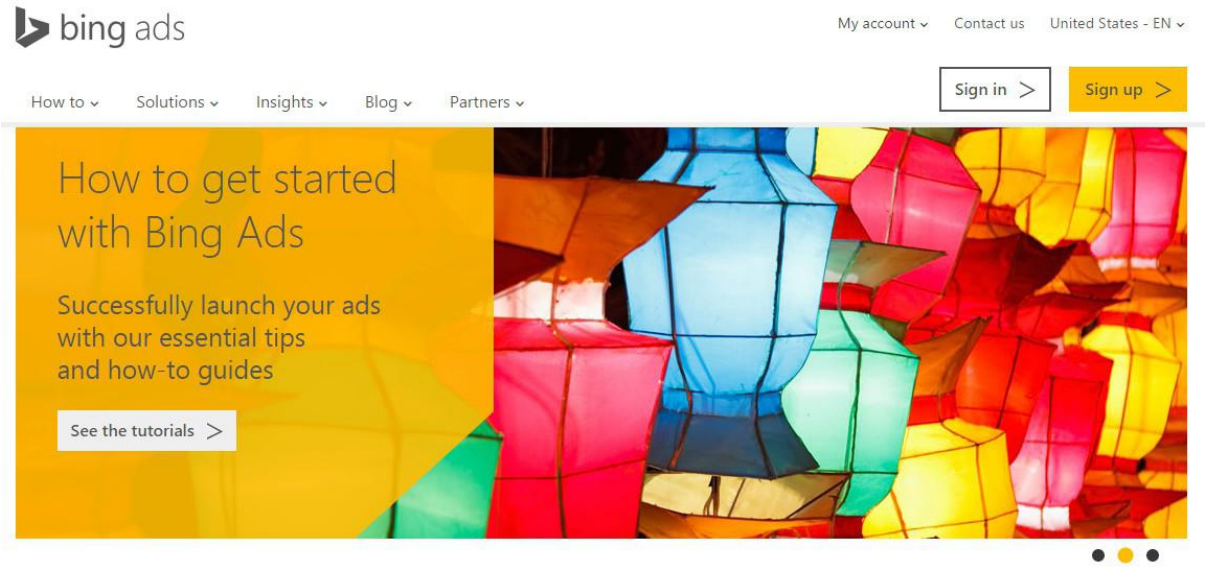

It consists of signing up for a few sites.

First and foremost you need to sign up for Bing ADS (CLICK HERE)

I'm not going to run through the entire process because it is self explanatory...

But you are going to want to click on the Sign Up button.

(The setup page might look different depending on your country)

From there, the next page should offer you a $50 coupon to get Started with if not contact the support team and they will set it up for you

Make sure you put in your information to get that $50

Now remember you have to put some money of your own into your

Account to get the $50 coupon also if you use HOSTGATOR.COM

They have a $100 coupon on offer to use on bing ads, or you could

Google bing Ads coupons there is a few places that offer a Whooping

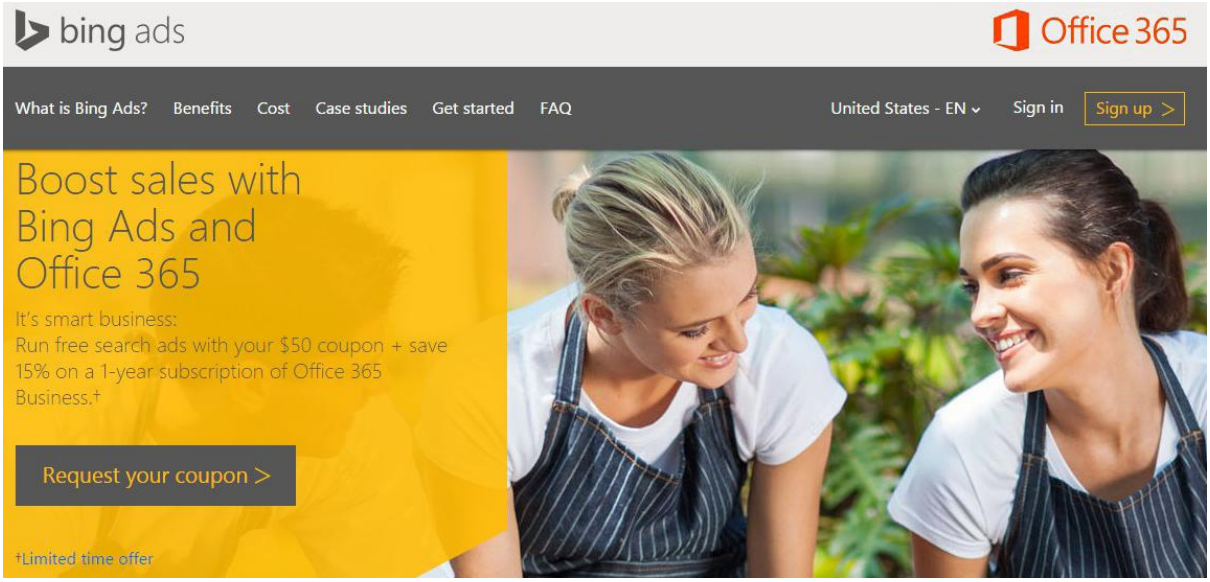

$400 coupon But you have to go thru someone else's system No matter

What something is better than nothing to help you reinvest back into

Your campaigns. Aside from all that, go ahead and create your account…

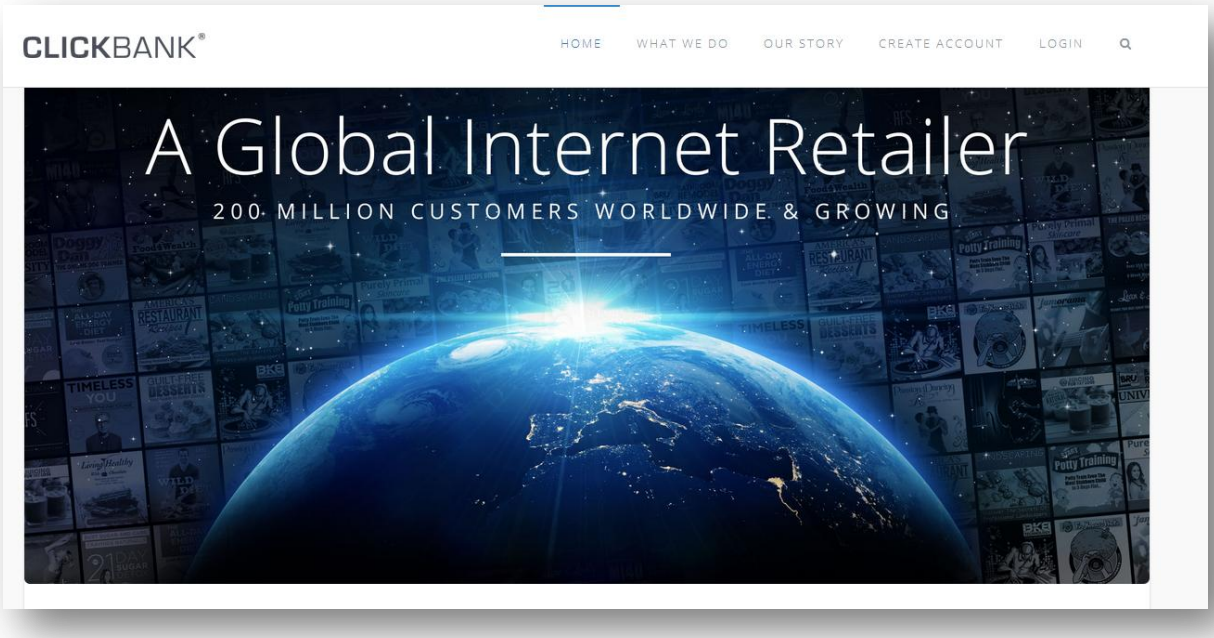

It's easy and self-explanatory but don't forget to contact the support

Next you want to sign up to clickbank you may already have an account

Here if you have just open it up...click here

Go ahead and click the SIGN UP link on the top right...

Once again, the sign up part is super easy.

Why Clickbank?

Well Clickbank has just about every niche you can ever think of...

And the amount of money generated by them is absolutely in the billions.

FACT

A Top clickbank marketer can make over a $50,000 in a day from 1 product launch when done right.....

Just to give you some perspective about the money being payed out there.

Ok Last but not least…

We have CPA networks.

CPA networks actually have people look over your applications to pick you out…

So unlike Clickbank that is free to sign up…

There's a chance you might not make the cut with a few specific networks.

Don’t worry about that as there is loads of cpa networks to choose from.

I must be a part of about 10 CPA networks so I know what it takes to get in…

Module 2 cpa networks……

First and foremost, here is a list of awesome CPA networks…

Ones that I am a part of and also, recommend to you:

Ok now here are the goods on how to get accepted...

And I'm going to break it down into a few important tips.

So if you don't know exactly what you will be promoting then...

Think of something, stick with it, and write it down on your application.

(Making money online is a always a good niche to start with)

Know Your Traffic Source

Let them know that you will be doing Bing PPC (pay per click)...

Just this one traffic source should be enough for them to set you up a account

If you go to an affiliate network and say you are going to do...

Facebook ads, Instagram, adwords, Bing, email marketing, etc...

They will know you are full of crap

They have seen thousands of applications before and they can sniff that out...

So aside from just putting down your one traffic source...

Be honest with your affiliate manger as they will tell you what is working with bing ads just ask them.....

I have to accept and deny affiliates all the time for my own products...

So I've been on the other side...

And I truly know when someone is just going to waste time.

Affiliate managers take acceptances very seriously...

Because they want to protect their people from other people going out and spamming links.

Last but not least, sign up for as many networks as you can.

Some will accept you, some won't... and that's just the way it is.

Either way, following what I showed you above will put you ahead of everyone else.

WHAT OFFERS TO PICK

So now that you know how to sign up to CPA networks...

Let's look at some types of offers that work best with this system.

Lead Generation / Email / Zip submit

This is where you get paid to get someone's email...

And many times you might need to get more information as well.

Full name, address, email, and a few more.

These can offer payouts anywhere from $1 - $10 (and even higher sometimes).

The great thing about lead generation is that it's easier money.

Just think about it, what is more likely to happen...

Get someone to put in their email or have someone put in their credit card details

However, since the clicks with Bing are so stinking cheap...

You are going to want to make the best of both worlds.

Sales

This is basically every offer on Clickbank.

You get paid a commission whenever someone purchases through your link.

TIP: When it comes to sale offers...

Many of them either have pages that auto play videos or have exit pops...

When it comes to Bing ads they don't like that kind of stuff...

So make sure the offer you send out doesn't have either of those as they won't allow your ad to go live.

Module 3: Step by step set guide.....

So we've made it... not so bad, right?

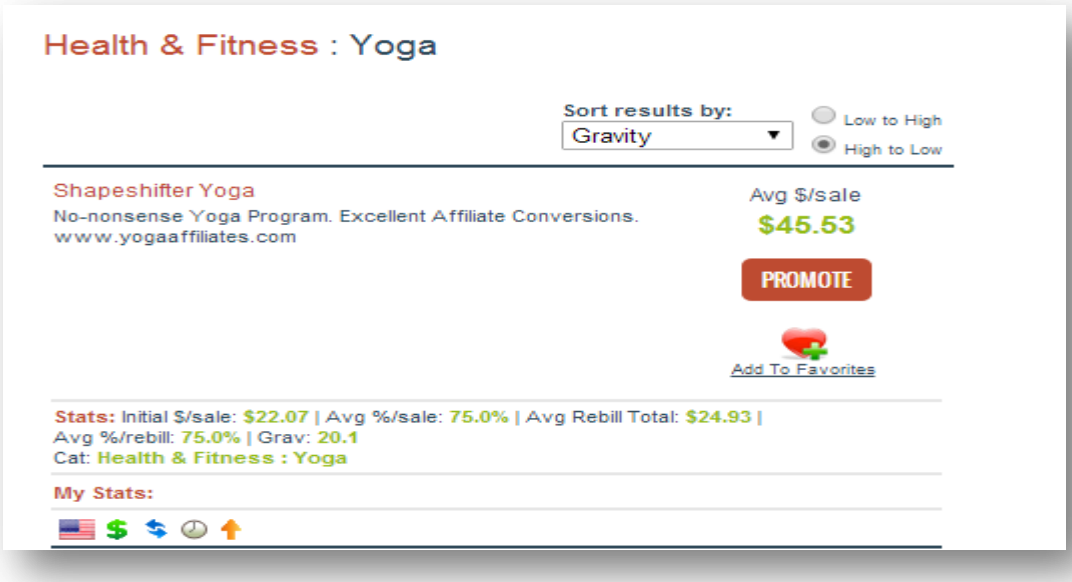

This is where I walk you through setting up a simple campaign.

I happen to pick an offer from Clickbank just so you can follow along.

TIP: I'm not saying this offer will convert so don't copy it when you go...

It's strictly just for showing you how to copy my process.

The offer I am going to use is for YOGA....

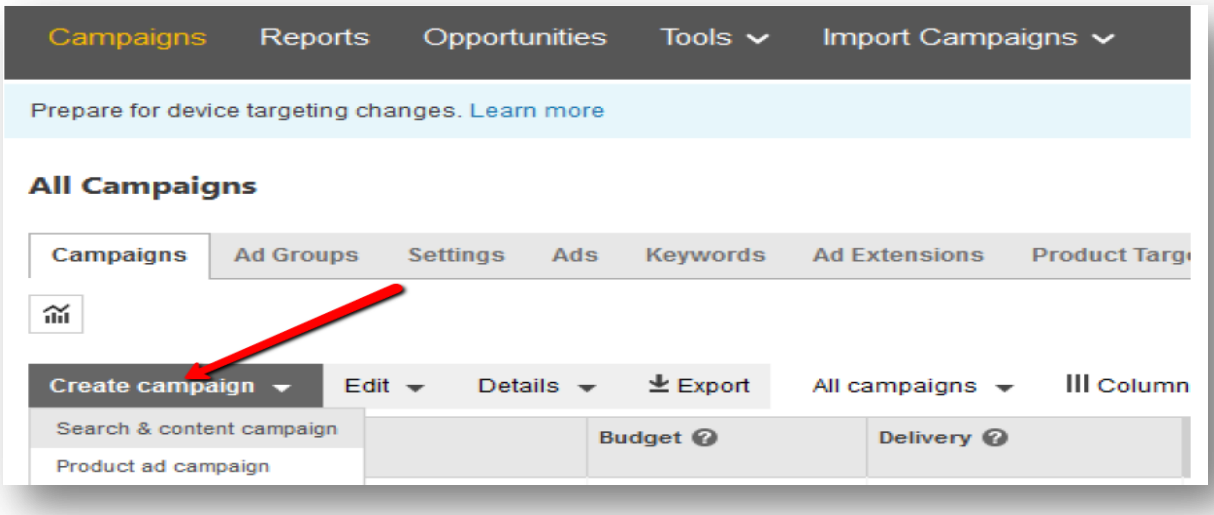

This can be found by going into Clickbank then Marketplace at the top...

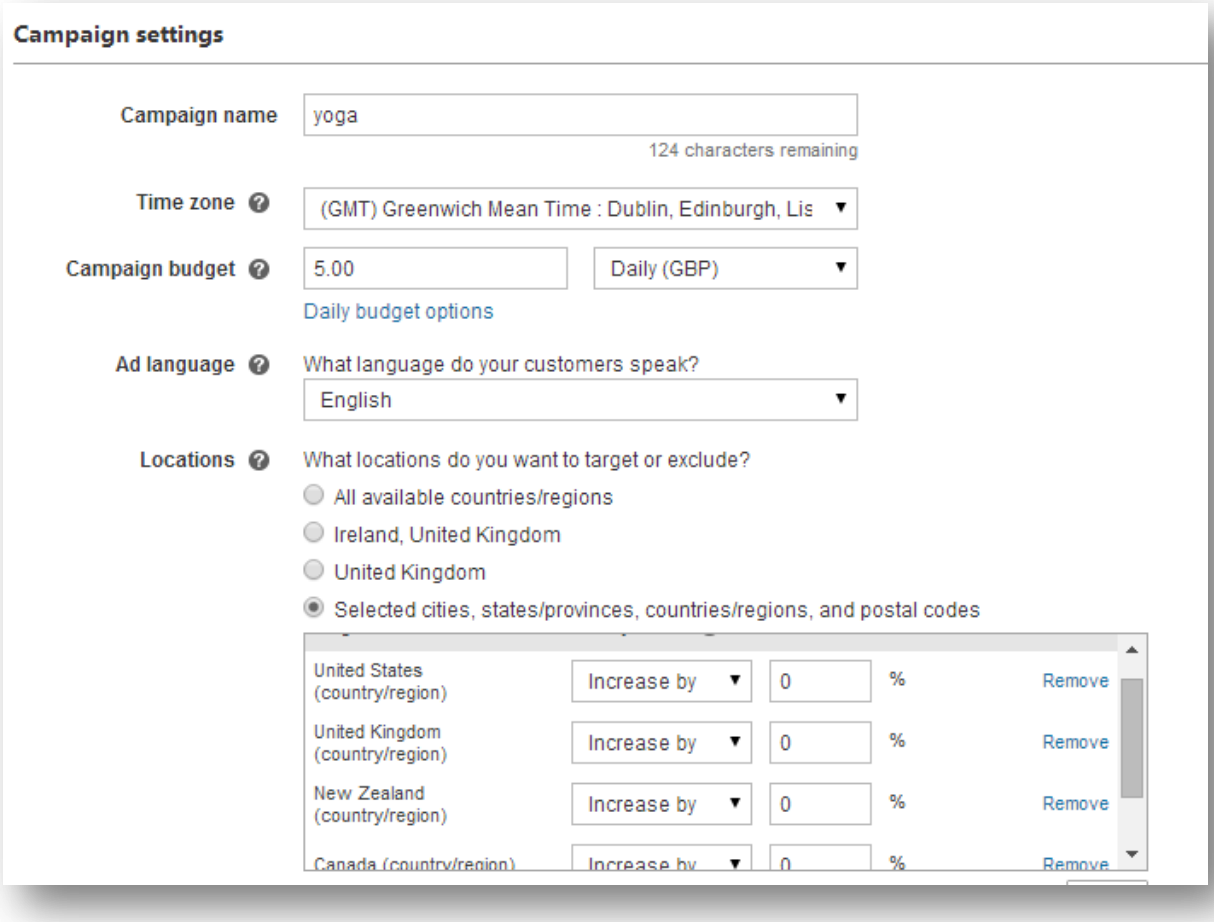

From there simply search for YOGA and you can find it.

Now back to Bing... You are also going to click on 'Create campaign'...

Then you want to always click on 'Search & content campaign

Next we go to the campaign settings:

Campaign Name: Give it a name called your offer.

Time Zone: Enter the time zone you are in.

Campaign Budget: $5.00 (this is only to start with until you build it up)

Ad language: English

Locations: This one is important.

Now if you are running a CPA offer, they will tell you what countries are Allowed like United States, or Canada so make sure to check the cpa offer.

Now for Clickbank offers, you want to use the 5 top tier countries.

These are the top tier 5 countries that always seem to buy.

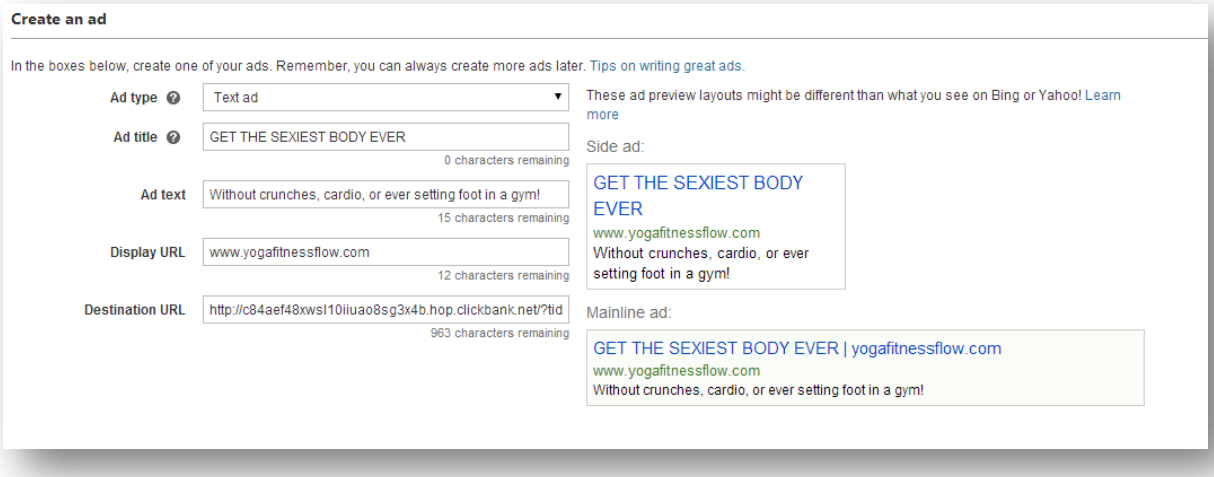

United States, United Kingdom, Canada, New Zealand, Australia

Type those in or click browse and select them by clicking target…

Next click show ads to people in your targeted location

Now we move onto the next section, creating an ad.

So Ad Type will always be Text Ad.

Ad Title: you always want to use something that gets people's attention…..

For this example I used: Get the sexiest body ever

Other types of titles can be pointing out their problems like

"Burn fat using yoga" you get the idea

Ad Text: I simply got this from the headline on the sales letter…

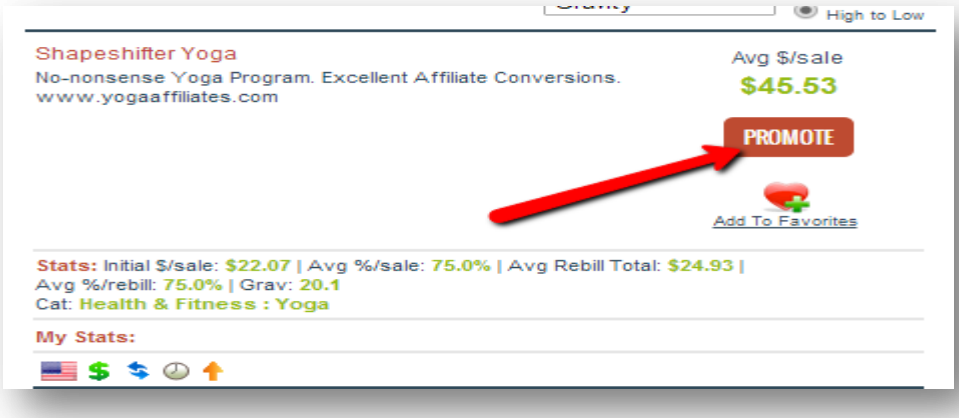

You will get a lot of ideas from the sales letters...

So make sure to have a good look over the sales letter for inspiration when creating an ad.

Display URL: Simply use the URL from the sales letter...

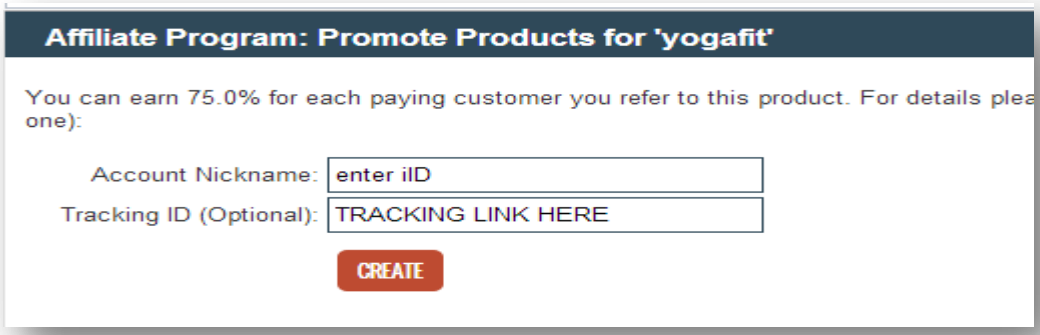

You need to use this as bing ads will not allow something else

Destination URL: This will be your affiliate link.

Now click on the PROMOTE button…

After doing that, you should get taken to a page that looks like…

Your account nickname is where your account nickname goes…

Then for tracking id put in something you will understand.

Now you don't have to use a tracking link but it helps you know where all

Of your sales in Clickbank come from.

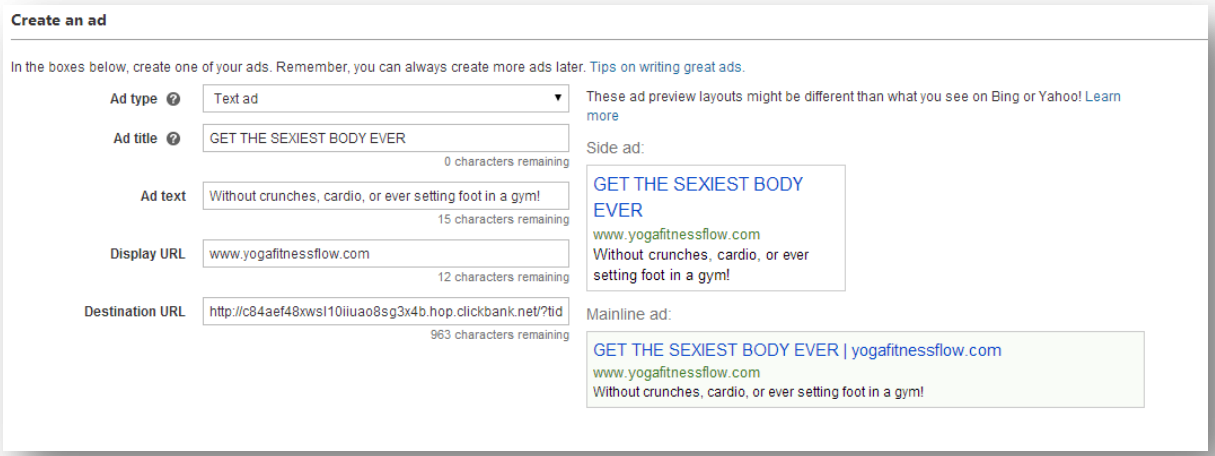

Then you click create and this page will appear…

The link on the TOP is the one you use; copy that, the other one you only use on a website…

Once you have it copied, paste it into your destination URL.

So when it is all done, here is what that section looks like again.

OK so let's move onto the next section.

MODULE 4 PICKING THE RIGHT KEYWORDS.....

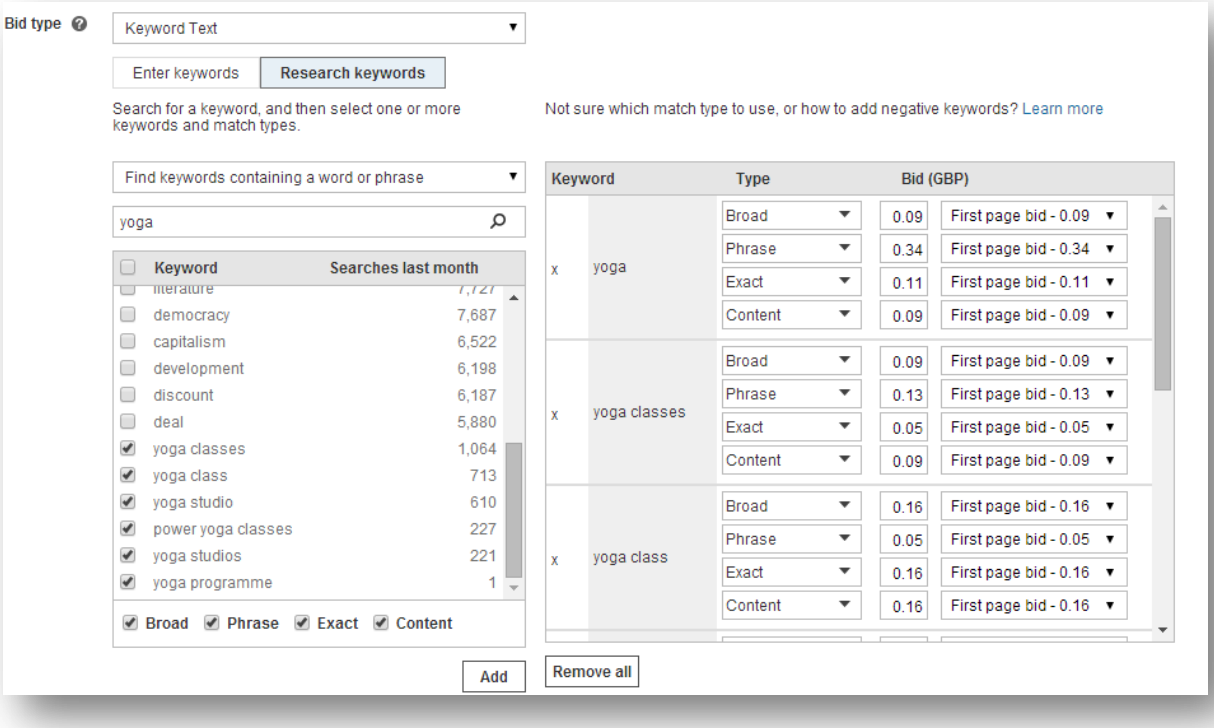

This section is all about keywords...

And I've come up with a few different ways of doing this...

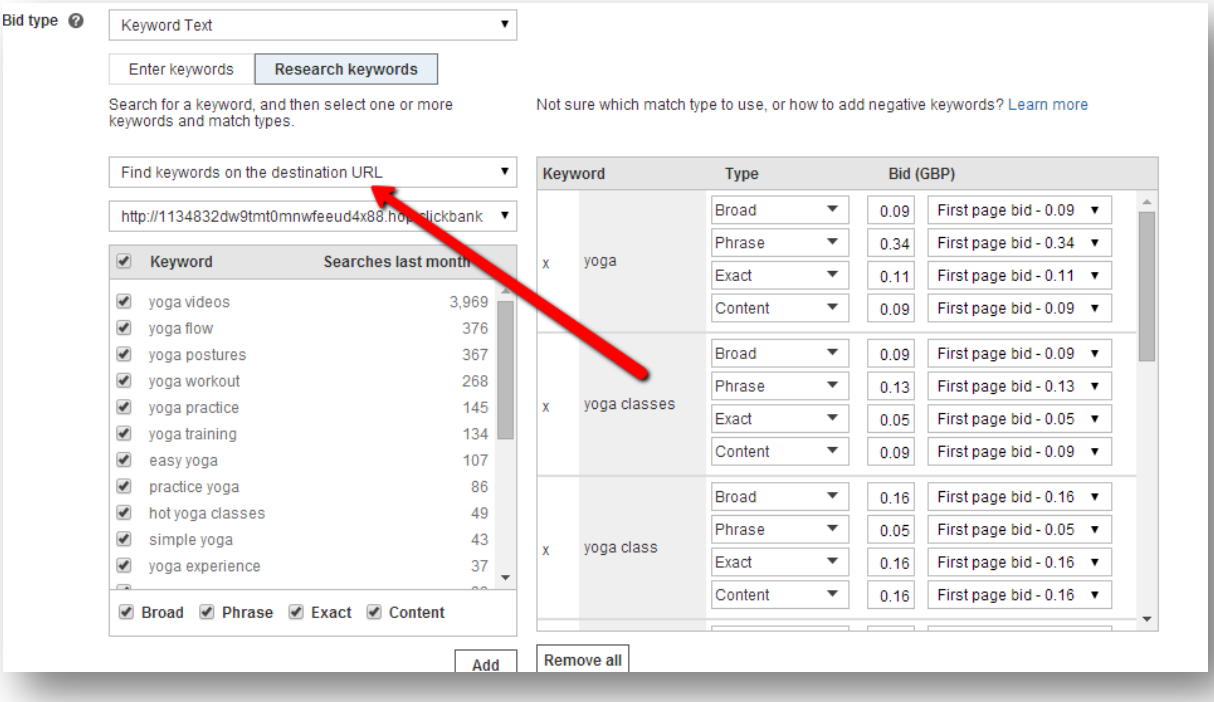

The first way is to search with Bing itself now there is a few ways to do this the first would be to click on research keywords and the second is by entering a keyword and using some of the results that bing shows you on that keyword, and you can also enter the url of another website and get the keywords related to that website and use them ok so click on Research Keywords then...

Find keywords containing a word or phrase

So you can also use the destination url to get some more keywords

Now you should have few keywords by now but that is not enough as

You are going to need about 300 at least so next you will go to

Google keyword planner

You'll need a gmail account which is easy to sign up for once you get that done then sign up for a google adwords account and go to the tools

section at the top of the page and you will see key word planner

So now I'm going to show you exactly what you need to do.

On the main page, you are going to want to click on...

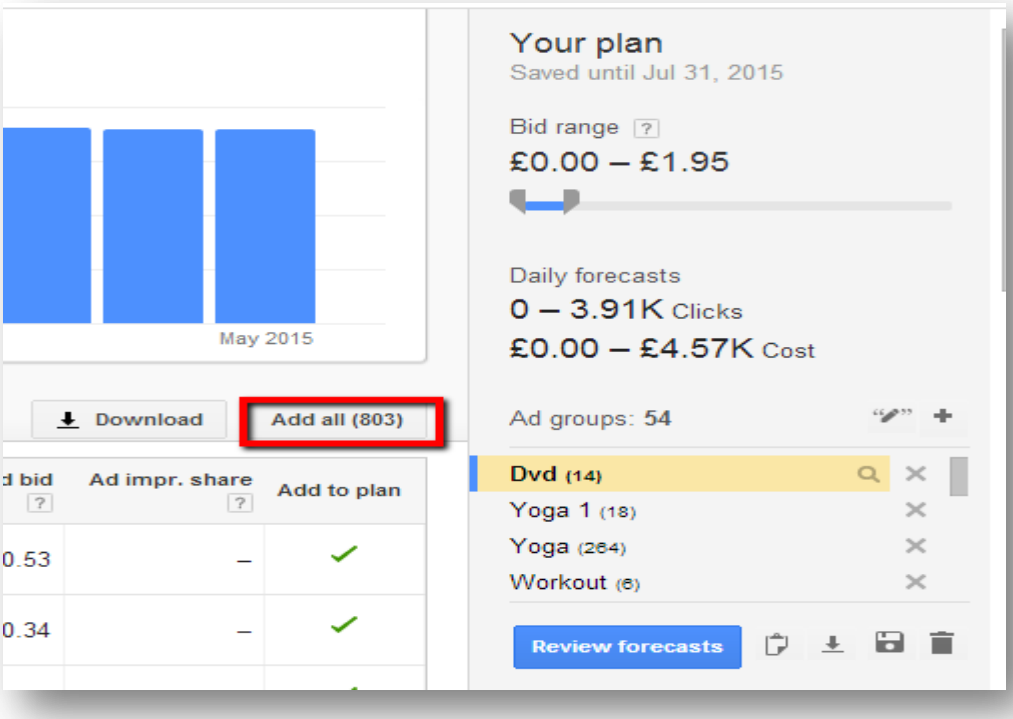

Search for new keyword and ad group ideas.....

Once you click on that simply enter 2 or 3 keywords to get more ideas...

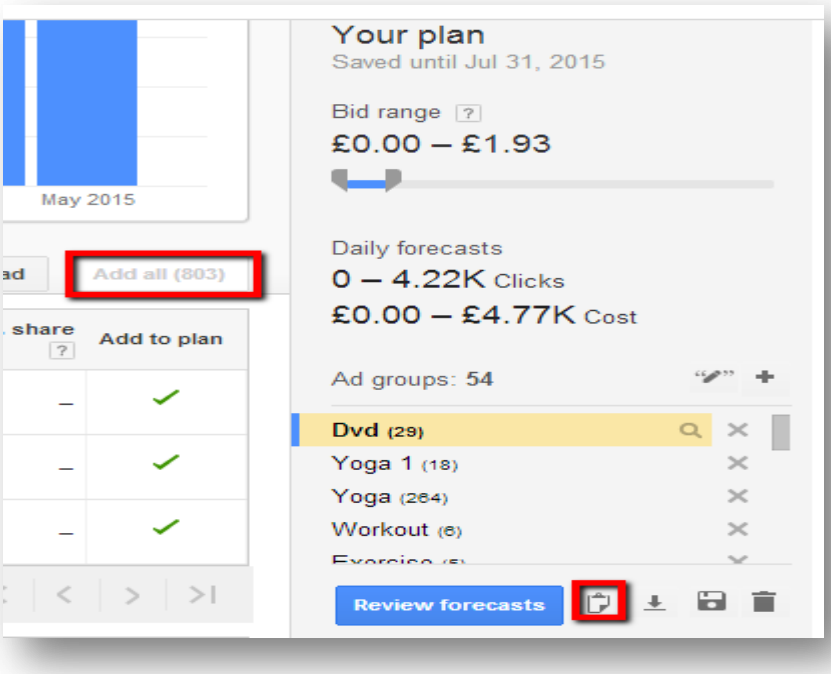

Don't worry about anything else then click on Get ideas

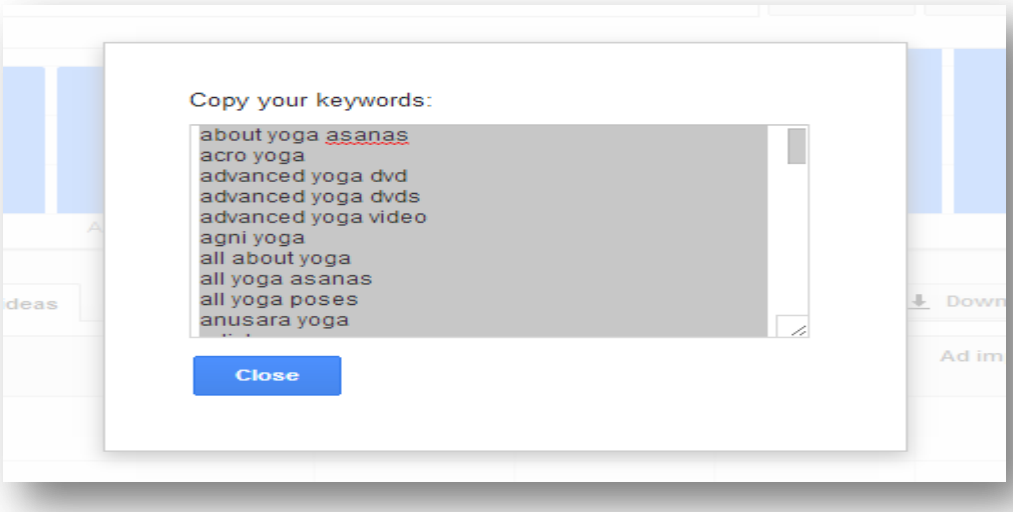

Next you want to click on add all that is highlighted in red

After you have done that you can either download the keywords to your desktop or click copy to clipboard

This is what you will see after you click copy to clipboard

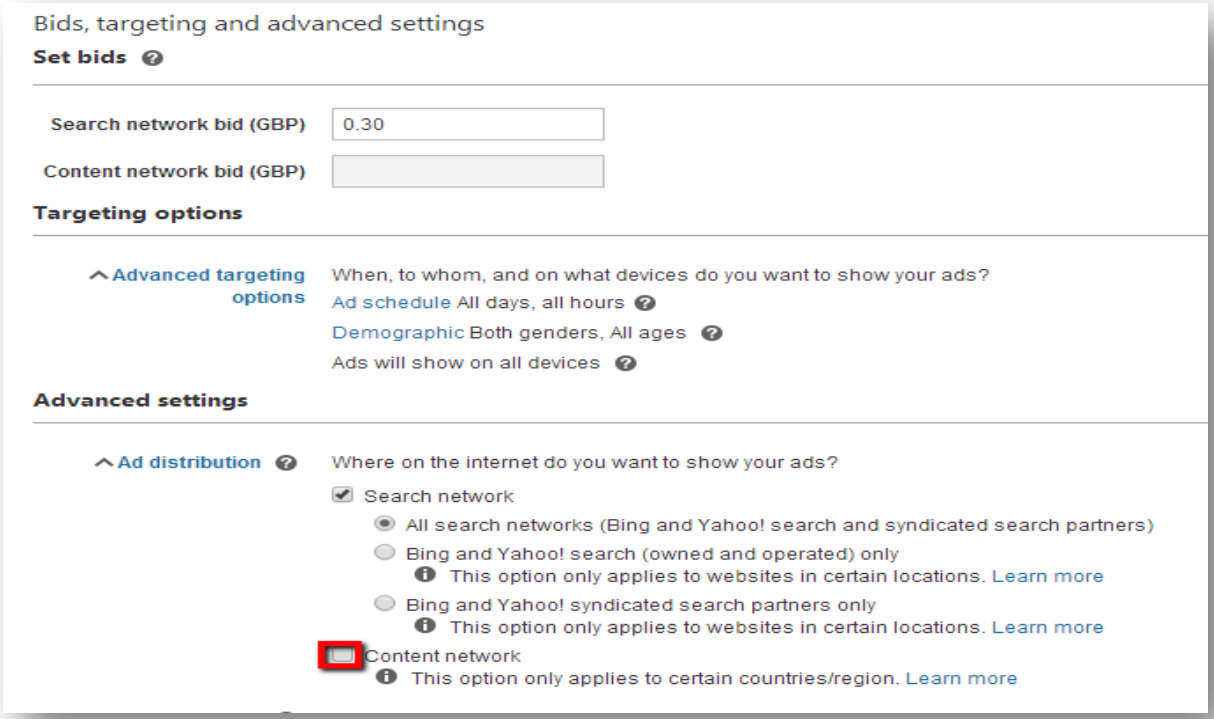

And you can copy those to notepad.

You now have a TON of keywords to put back into your campaign.

TIP Be sure to copy and paste anywhere from 50-100 into Bing at a time as to many keywords at once can make them freeze up

Now that you have all of your keywords...

Scroll down to the bottom and click 'Save

The only thing you need to do here is Uncheck 'Content network'

This will automatically take away the content network bid.

(the quality of traffic is not that good which is why we won't be using it)

After that, you want to scroll down and click on Save and you're

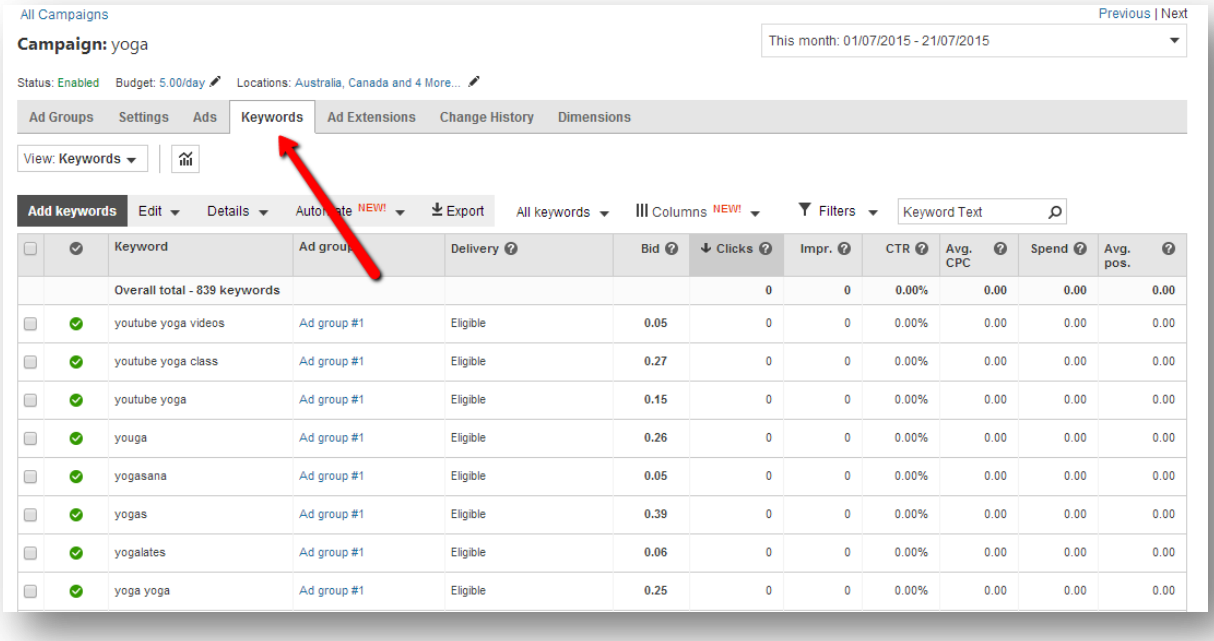

ALMOST done

Now you are going to be taken back to the main Campaign page...

You want to immediately click on your campaign link you made (yoga)

Then click on Keywords...

Then click on the 'Select all rows on all pages' link.

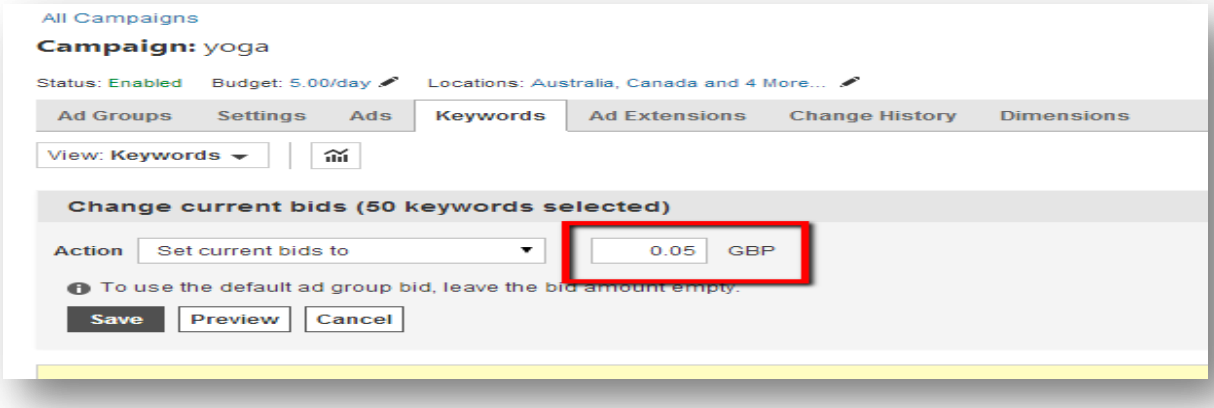

What that does is select EVERY keyword that you have and from there...

Next we go to edit and click on change current bids.....

Now this is where we change are bids on each keyword to 0.05

(YES only 5 pence) this is because i,m based in the uk if you're in the usa then it would be 5 cents

And then click Save and your campaign is now complete... well almost

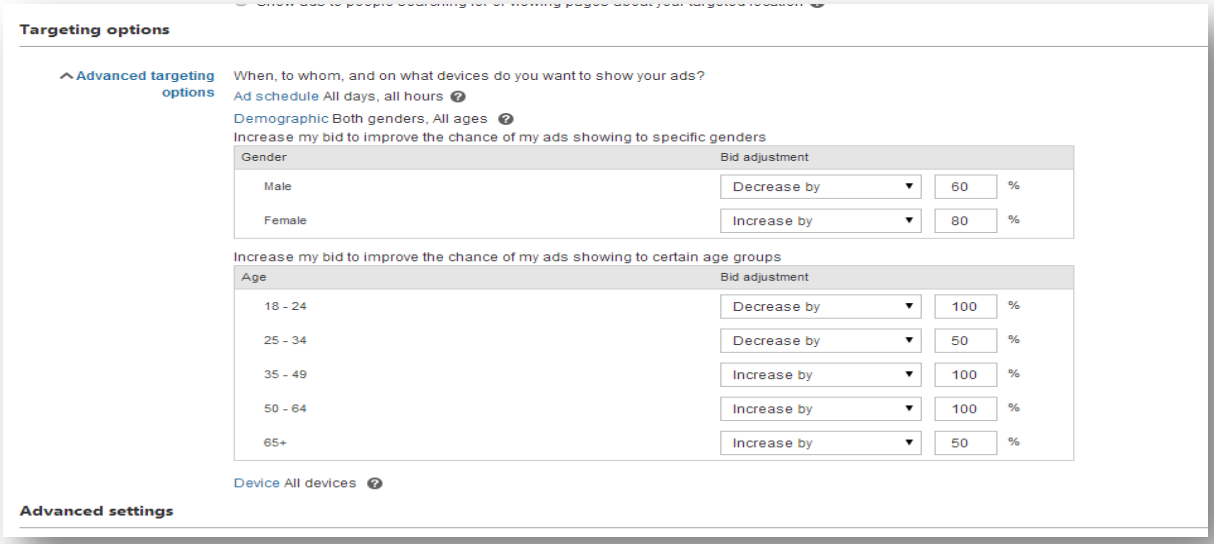

Now we are are going to have a look at

Advanced Targeting

Once you have basically created your campaign with bing you then need

To go back to the settings page and fix it.....

So let's do that, while still in your campaign, click on Settings.

Here is an example since we are using a yoga offer i feel that it is aimed

More for females and i don't think there is to many 18-24 years olds

Doing it as we decrease that age group and increase the other age groups (but it all depends on your offer)

This is important to do if your offer is gender specific.

Aside from everything else in the settings tabs, this is the most important.

You can mess with mobile device if you like...

But FINALLY, you have now finished your campaign...

Just be sure to click Save on the bottom of the page

Module 5 landing pages & emailing.....

In this module we will talk about how to get a domain name and hosting

And build a landing page with banners and place optin form so that you will be able to build a email list and email more offers to your list

The software that i use for this method is instabuilder.com

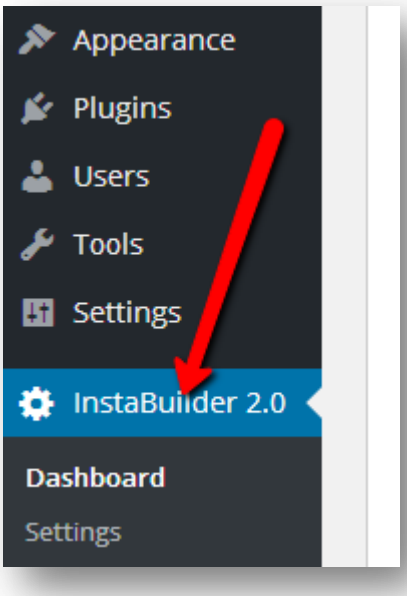

I find that this software is the best for building landing pages, sales pages Squeeze pages, funnels etc the reason why is that it's a wordpress plugin And its alot cheaper than leadpages and clickfunnels and does the same Thing for a one of payment

Ok so hopefully you have got your hands on instabuilder as for the Domain name i use godaddy.com or namecheap.com as for hosting i use Hostgator.com as i feel that they are the best around, remember when i said about the$100 coupon with hostgator its there waiting for you.

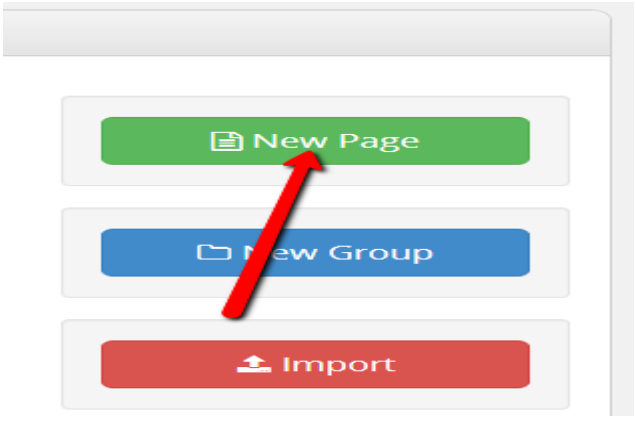

Ok so i,ll not bore you With the details as ill assume you understand how To pick a domain Name And link it to you hosting account using nameservers if you don't Just go to youtube as they have loads of videos on how to do this Also as a Bonus With this ebook i have thru in a wordpress video Course just to help You understand wordpress abit More and to help you out. Once you have set up your wordpress site and Installed instabuilder also with instabuilder they show you the best ways Of how to install there software with step by step tutorials.

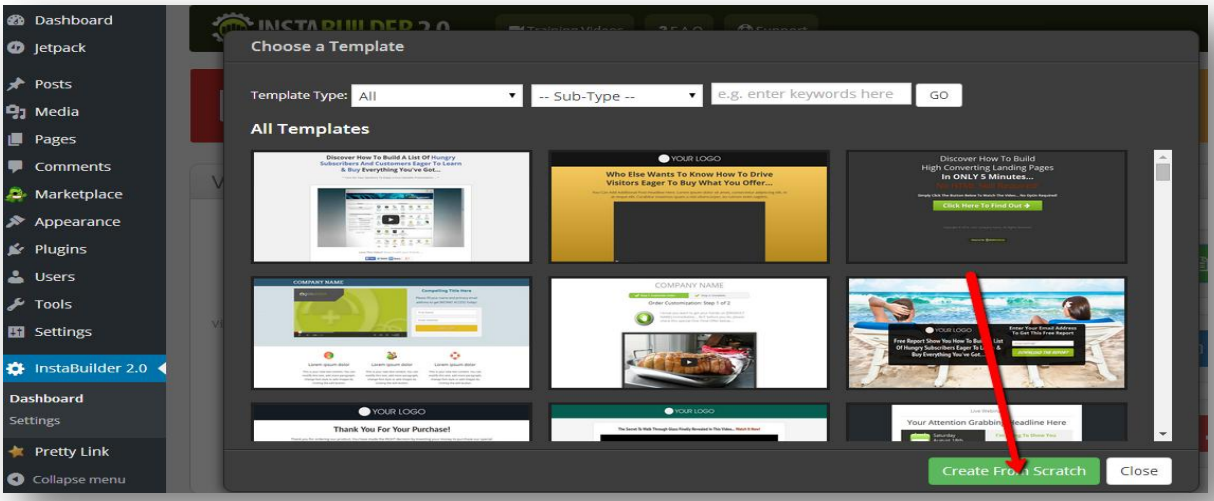

From the wordpress dashboard click instabuilder

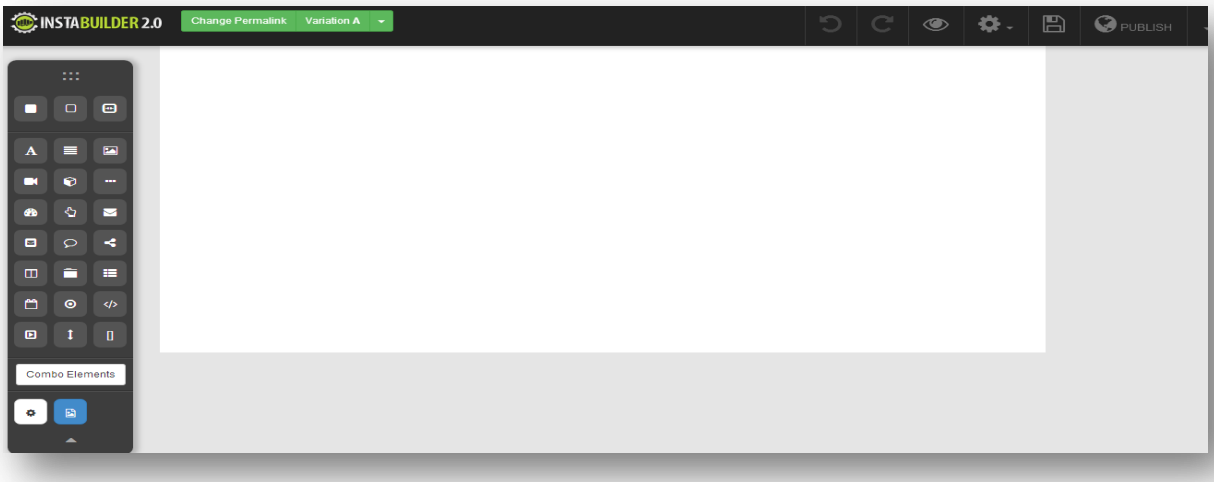

After that then click on to new page

You could use one of the templates but for this example we are going to use create from scratch as seen below

Now once you have done all this you will be left will a blank website page like this

This is where you start to build you landing pages by using the elements

On the left hand side. In instabuilder there is loads of tutorials and Videos that will show you how to do this, so please play around with it abit and learn how it works.

I have created this landing page as an example that has been approved by bing here is the website address http://offers2u.info/house

You get the idea now this is only a rough example that i made hopefully

You will be able to create something better, next you will need to add

Some content that relates to your offer, now if you are good at writing

Content then this will be easy, if not then don't worry we have got that covered.

Here's what you do, go to google and look for articles that relate to your

Offer make sure to add the word articles at the end of your search, also

Try ezine articles they have loads of articles that you can use. Once you

Have found a article then just copy and paste that article in to a notepad.

Next you will want to change that article a round abit maybe take some

Lines out of it and add some to make it your own or you could use a free

Article spinner to do this, just type into google free article spinner and

You will get one. After you have done that just copy and paste that article

Into you instabuilder landing page.

Now with instabuilder the easiest way to copy and paste is to

(ctrl + c) to copy

(ctrl + v) to paste

Now you have your content added you should also have your optin form

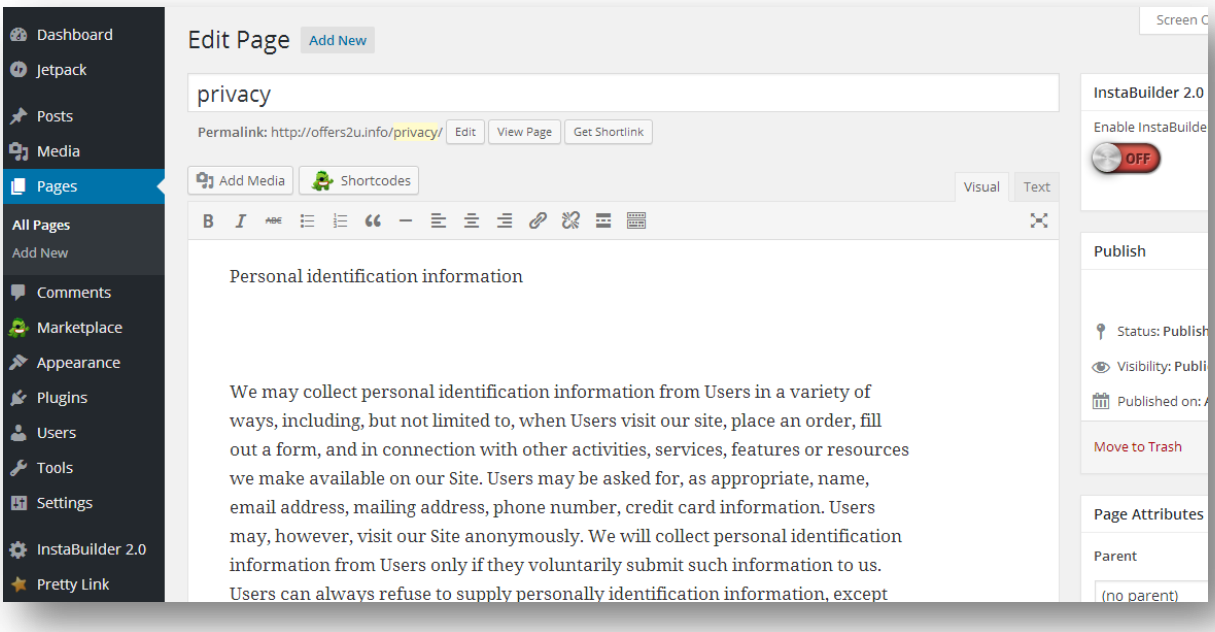

Added as well you will get this from autoresponder in the form of html code,

This is the important part to get bing to approve your landing page you

Need to add a privacy policy and optin disclaimer and terms of services

So go back to your wordpress dashboard and click on pages then click on add new page

Once you have done that then i want you to copy and paste this privacy policy template that i have set out for you and add your own website

© YOUR WEBSITE HERE 2015 All Rights Reserved

Dont forget to add your website name to the bottom of the page after you Have done all that then go to your landing page and at the bottom of the Page add a text element and type in the names of your pages one by one And then click the link icon that i have pointed to

From here just add the link of the page that you have just created

Do this again for the other two pages, the reason for these pages is that You are complying with bing ads guidelines and once they see these Pages they will approve you, one other thing is when you fill in you Display url in bing ads always use your domain name in the display url But in the destination url you can use the name of you website page and It doesn,t matter what you offer is as you can create as many pages as you like all relating to different offers,

Once you have all that set up then its down to placing you ad and once People start to see it they will start to sign up to your email list and this is Were you continue to email offers that relate to them and by doing this You will start to see your profits increase in a big way.

Module 6 maximum profits.....

This section is going to be quick and easy...

All because I have shown you how to setup a campaign...

But not only that, this section is ALL about putting in more money...

And getting a more back in return, Once your campaign starts running...

You are going to notice that some keywords get traffic and some don't.

What you want to do is start deleting some keywords doing nothing...

And with the top keywords, what you want to do is create new campaigns for them.

So let's say the keyword 'learning yoga' was going well.

You would create an entire new campaign around only that 1 keyword.

And use that keyword for your tracking ID....

That way you know which keyword is bringing in sales for you!

So aside from doing that...

You want to base your Ad Title around your keyword as well

Last but not least, you can bump up your spending on that keyword on your daily budget so if you were bidding $5 per day... do $10...

If you were bidding .05 on your keyword... bid .10

The thing with Bing is that scaling isn't the fastest in the world...

However, it allows you to spend less to get the maximum profits...

It really doesn't get any better than this...

seriously…

Where else can you get targeted buyer clicks for only 0.05?

I'm so glad and grateful that you have made it this far and have taken the time and effort to do something about you own financial wealth and for that I congratulate you

This is all a learning experience at the start so please do not give up or move on to something else just take action and do it as I really do hope that you use the information in this ebook and produce some great results and income streams for yourself and you online business

Until the next time

Take care and focus and take action in life

Thanks
